Bible Study Manual Jun 17 2021 It is with great pleasure and honor that I personally thank you for obtaining this book. I believe the Word of God (Bible) is the only source for absolute divine authority, and the Holy Spirit's influence in our understanding and applying God's Word in our daily lives is key. The Word of God is totally authoritative and unailing. During a very long course of years in ministry, I have had occasion to study the Bible and to read commentaries and reviews. I taught in Sunday school, Bible study classes, and in two Bible colleges. I have always been fascinated with teaching the Bible. I came to understand that studying the Word of God is a vital discipline in the life of a Christian. However, it occurs to me that prayer meetings and Bible Study meetings are the least attended program in many local churches. So, I asked myself a question. "What are the reasons why Christians do not dedicate their time and energy to studying God's Word?" I found the answers: First, the lack of fun in learning while studying Bible is one of the factors. Second, the topics are not as challenging and exciting as many may think. This manual is designed to challenge your knowledge and comprehension of the scriptures while you have fun exploring the biblical principles of the Bible. The manual is designed to give you a structure to break up your Bible study into manageable series. Each series will take you a month to complete, but some will take more based on the depth and maturity of your audiences. This manual can also be used as personal devotional book, as it contains the total truth necessary for living. The main aim of this manual is to assist you in studying the Bible and help you build a firm foundation for your faith. This manual also helps you to avoid theological error as we study to prepare ourselves for disciple-making, ministry, and service. 1 Timothy 4:16 admonishes, "Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee."

Your Better Self Study Manual Sep 01 2022 This Manual is designed to be used as a compliment to and in conjunction with my book, Your Better Self: A Simple Guide to Where You Want to Be. It can most certainly be read by itself as a proper book in its own right. However, there are allusions and references to content in the book such that some of the content of this Manual might appear incomplete. The purpose of the book is to offer scenarios and stories slices of real life so that readers can self-identify the specific areas of life they need to work on so they can increase their motivation and energy to straightforwardly manifest their worthy aspirations and more quickly become their better Selves. The purpose of this Manual is to be a companion to the book, offering additional content, stories, resources, tools and exercises to help readers delve more deeply into those areas of opportunity to improve themselves. Taken together, the book and this Manual provide all that is needed to begin to more rapidly and easily become your better Self and get what you really want in your life. When you read a chapter in the book that beckons you to explore that particular theme of life at a deeper level, pick up this Manual and go to that same chapter (the Manual has the same chapter names and sequence as the book) and read the additional content. More importantly, be sure to do the exercises as these will help you get clearer on the specific and unique ways YOU can become YOUR better Self.

The Character of God Study Manual Nov 10 2020 This Study Manual is a look at who God is based on what He says about Himself in the Bible. It starts with the premise that God wants us to know Him and has revealed Himself to us through the Bible. In fact, God has gone to great lengths in His Word to describe in human terms just who He is - using illustrative language that we can all relate to. For example, we see God as Our Refuge - a place to run and take shelter until trouble passes (Psalm 57:1); or Our Guide who leads us over dark, rough and unfamiliar roads (Isaiah 42:16); or Our Majestic King who is sovereign over all peoples and nations and has an eternal kingdom that far exceeds anything on earth (Daniel 7:14); or Our Judge who will one day judge every person's deeds (Revelation 20:12); or Our Compassionate Father who loves and disciplines His children (Psalm 103:13); or Our Shepherd who tenderly tends to his flock, carrying the lambs in His arms (Isaiah 40:11); and so on. This manual identifies 48 names and character traits God attributes to Himself in His Word and provides study material for further personal study into understanding who God is -- based on what God says about Himself in the Bible. 400 workbook-style pages filled with personal study assists, quotes and biblical references (written out for easy study).

Jesus in the Gospels Study Manual Mar 27 2022 Study Manual content illuminates some aspect of the Jesus in the Gospels each week and connects Scripture to daily life and Jesus' call to discipleship. The overarching aim is to deepen discipleship through better understanding of the biblical texts and their message. The study helps group members understand that Jesus is rooted in Judaism and the Scriptures of Judaism and that Christianity and the New Testament are rooted in the Scriptures of Judaism--our Old Testament. The Study Manual guides daily study and preparation for the weekly group meeting. The main elements in the format are designated by scriptural phrases: "They have no wine" (John 2:3) is a brief statement about the human condition and alerts the reader to some aspect of daily life that Scripture can shed light on. "Beginning with Moses and all the prophets" (Luke 24:27) is a way of referring to Scripture as a whole and signals the fact that we can understand Jesus in the Gospels better by understanding the Old Testament better. "Do you want to become his disciples, too?" (John 9:27, New International Version) is designed to stimulate thoughtful reflection so readers can come to their own conclusions about what their own discipleship calls for. Accompanying each day's Scripture reading assignments are suggestions of things to look for that take the reader deeper into Scripture. As readers become aware of detail in Scripture, they might ask themselves repeatedly, What am I to make of this? The study manual provides space for writing notes on insights, observations, and questions related to the Scripture, and for putting into words personal perceptions of Jesus from the week's Scripture.
