Taylor's Principles and Practice of Medical Jurisprudence Nov 18 2021

Regina V Vagina Oct 29 2022 WARNING: CONTAINS EXPLICIT LANGUAGE Letitcia was the proverbial 'good time' (girl) that had been 'had by all'. She had been sporadically pleasuring the masses in a 'career' which spanned several continents. As Mae West would comment, she had 'been things and seen places.' She was (unfortunately) blissfully unaware of her Tax liability in the UK, until HMRC kindly pointed out her responsibility. One would imagine, and certainly, logic would dictate, that suitably chastened, she could have just paid the tax bill with the attendant penalties, to carry on, and wend her merry way. But, oh no, that would just be too simple on Planet Civil Service. 'Justice', as in, showing the general public: 'Behold how we catch these miscreants!!' has to be, (in the world of HMRC), SEEN to be done. It was another fine mess Letitcia had gotten into, but could she get herself out? As the comedian Max Miller would joke: 'Would she block their passage or toss them off' of the Tax train? Wince as the horror of bankruptcy, homelessness and/or incarceration squeezes her 'pincer movement' into submission. Watch her grapple with the discrimination, morality and misinformation surrounding the rights of Sex workers....along with the incompetence of her persecutors. Will it all come out in the wash or do nice gals always have to finish last? Will Brighton and beyond be deprived of their best loved Erotic Service Provider? This is her story..... (Inconveniently, she also used to work for the Inland Revenue, albeit 40 years ago!!!!!!)

Recent decisions of note that are extracted and analysed include R v Kennedy (manslaughter based on supply of heroin); Attorney General for Jersey v Holley (provocation); R v Mark and R v Willoughby (elements of killing by gross negligence); R v Barnes (consent as a defence to sporting injuries); Attorney General's Reference (No 3 of 2004) (accessorial liability) and R v Hatton (intoxicated mistake in self defence cases). Consideration is also given to the likely changes to the law relating to corporate manslaughter, at the time of writing contained in the Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate Homicide Bill currently before Parliament. Two major law reform publications are extensively extracted and contextualised in this 4th edition - the Law Commission's report on Murder, Manslaughter and Infanticide (Law Com No 304) and the Law Commission's Report on Inchoate Liability for Assisting and Encouraging Crime (Law Com 300).
